

PETROVIC ROSES

One of the most beautiful and rare collections of roses in the world is suitable only 23 km. away from Belgrade, the capitol of Serbia, in the village Vrcin. The collection contains 2200 different rose varieties, mainly old garden roses, but also some modern varieties, including almost 200 varieties of English roses, very popular today. The roses are planted in very peaceful countryside and they cover one hectare.

Between old garden roses, you can find some very rare Species, Gallicas, Centifolias, Damasks, Moss, Teas, Bourbons, Hybrid Perpetuals, Rugosas, China roses, Climbers, Ramblers etc. Some of them can be found also only in the world known rose gardens such as Europa-Rosarium—Sangerhausen, Germany, Roseaie du Val de Marne l'Haÿ-les-roses, Val de Marne, France, Roseto Botanico di Cavriglia "Carla Fineschi"—Tuscany, Italy, Rosarium of the Arborétum Borová hora—Zvolen, Slovakia, Vintage gardens, California, USA and in some private collections.

The rose garden is still in the process of creating, so there can be seen some very young plants and also a 3 years old roses.

The owner of the rose collection is Radoslav Petrovic, rose breeder, the member of the World Federation of Rose Societies and the president of the Royal Serbian Rose Society.
